2. Accommodation

EQAR members are invited to book their own accommodation in a hotel of their own choosing.

3. Public Transport

By bus from Brussels Airport to various stops in the city (airport line):

Follow the signs that lead to the bus station at the airport. There is a ticket machine near the bus. The Airport Line offers a connection with the metro at Schuman (lines 1-5) and at Trône/Troon (lines 2-6). More info here.

Within the first hour of validation, an Airport2City ticket allows you to connect on the entire STIB-MIVB network. You have several connections with the metro, tram, and bus.

By train from Brussels Airport to Brussels North, Centre and South

There are several trains every hour that will get you to the city centre.

From the airport directly to Centre Albert Borschette:

Take the airport bus until Schuman and from there walk to the meeting venue (6 minutes). There is also a direct train from Brussels Airport to Schuman.

From the airport directly to the Merode meeting venue:

Take the airport bus or train until Schuman and from there take the metro (line 1-5) in direction of Hermann-Debroux to Merode (one stop).
